Black Leadership Forum to host panel discussion 'Impact of the Black Vote in America'

BLF is proud to host a panel discussion at the National Press Club to address the significant impact of the Black vote on the upcoming mid-term elections. Executive Directors representing the NAACP, National Council of Negro Women, The Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights and a Professor/Political Scientist/Radio Host are all confirmed panelists. The speakers will specifically address key Congressional and state races; election protection/voter suppression schemes; the analysis of the youth vote and the impact of Black women voters.

WHO: Black Leadership Forum, Inc.

WHAT: Panel Discussion –Impact of the Black Vote in America

WHEN: Friday, October 29, 2010, 10:00AM

WHERE: National Press Club * 529 14TH Street, 13TH Floor * Washington, DC * 20045

WHY: Politics is defined as who gets what, when and how much. Civic awareness and political engagement in the 2010 mid-term elections is critical for all Americans, particularly people of color.
